THE THREE HUNDRED AND THIRTIETH
ANNUAL RECORD OF THE
ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY
OF MASSACHUSETTS
1967-1968

THE YEAR IN HISTORY

As always, on the first Monday in June of 1967, we assembled in the Armory at Faneuil Hall to begin the traditional ceremonies that would mark the start of the 330th consecutive year for this Grand Old Corps. The previous Annual Record records the proceedings of this day in detail, so we will not repeat it, but we will record a few of the major events that occurred during this administration. We believe a recitation of these highlights may help future readers to place us in the proper perspective in history.

Politically, President Johnson announced that he would not seek re-election, and he ordered a slow down of the bombing in Vietnam.

Also, a black leader of great prominence, Rev. Martin Luther King was assassinated. Considerable racial unrest was generated as a result.

In Europe, the Soviet Army invaded Czechoslovakia to "restore order."

In the U. S. Congress the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act was passed. This action was supposed to be the answer to the public's demand for stern measures against crime.

In medicine, the first transplantation of a human heart was performed. This would be the forerunner of many more such experiments that at some time might prolong human life. Naturally, as a "first" this appeared to be a tremendous step forward. No doubt when this is read by a future generation, it will be a "run of the mill" procedure.

Professional football was making great strides, and through the magic of television millions were spending Sunday afternoon in front of their sets enthralled by games thousands of miles away.

In the Fall of 1967 the Green Bay Packers won their third straight National Football League title, an unprecedented accomplishment.

Fashionwise, Lord Snowdon of Britain appeared in a tuxedo wearing a white turtle neck sweater in lieu of a shirt.

The Company made a trip to the World's Fair in Montreal, called Expo, and there viewed the U. S. pavilion. They found that the United States had abjured the customary solemnity of former fairs and had built a wildly playful dome designed by a young "modern."

Mass arrests of unruly students in universities continued, now at Columbia and San Francisco State.

A most extraordinary and controversial new play "Hair" made its appearance. It was banned in Boston at first, but later, with some changes, continued.

Pope Paul once more asserts the Church's ban on artificial birth control.

In 1968 we were told that U. S. investments abroad now exceed $100 billion, and that Japan had forged ahead of West Germany to become the world's third greatest industrial power. Also, in this year vast new oil reserves were discovered on Alaska's North Slope.

But enough of current events, let us proceed to the election of officers for the year June 1967 to June 1968.

After the traditional parade of our own Corps and the visiting delegations from the Centennial Legion, during which we paused to worship at St. Paul's Cathedral, we gathered at the Boston Common for our Drum Head Election.

330th Fall Field Day Tour of Duty

Berlin, Germany

Estoril, Portugal

29 September - 11 October 1967

REPORT OF THE PRELIMINARY TRIP

The members of the official party were:

CAPTAIN RALPH J. DEStEFANO, Captain Commanding

LIEUTENANT CALVIN W. CLAYTON, First Lieutenant

LIEUTENANT EDWARD J. KEELAN, Second Lieutenant

LIEUTENANT JOSEPH F. KREAS, Paymaster

BRIGADIER GENERAL FRED E. PEREIRA, Adjutant

SERGEANT ANTHONY P. DENLY, JR., Travel Agent

The trip was from 13 July to 27 July, 1967

The group met at Logan Airport and after group pictures were taken, boarded a Northeast Jet to Kennedy International Airport, New York. There we boarded a Pan Am Jet and headed for our first stop at Prestwick Airport, Scotland. After a short stop we left for West Berlin. There we were greeted by officials from the American Mission. We then headed for our Hotel, the Berlin Hilton.

After getting settled in our rooms we met with Mr. Thompson of the State Department and LT Derrickson, Aide to General Fergusson (the Commanding Officer in West Berlin). There we discussed our plans and desires for our forthcoming trip.

Then the Captain and Paymaster met with the hotel officials to finalize the arrangements for when the Company would arrive in the fall. So far everything went along very smoothly.

The next morning, Saturday, LT Keelan went to arrange for the Church Services in the fall. The remainder of the Committee went on a bus tour of West Berlin and to make sure that all of the sightseeing would be what the members would want when they would make the trip in the fall.

On our return LT Derrickson was at the hotel to let us know what had already been accomplished.

On Sunday afternoon the entire group went to Potsdam in East Germany to check out the proposed tour to that city in the fall. Also we arranged to have our lunch at the Hotel Cecilienhof. It was at this hotel at the end of World War II that the Potsdam Treaty was signed.

Early Monday we left for Templehof Airport to arrange for our parade and Memorial Service for our Fall Tour of Duty. Then to the city hall where they have dedicated a Memorial to our late President and Member John F. Kennedy. There we plan to have a short wreath laying ceremony.

The next day we met with the Army officials regarding a required talk for the group on customs and requirements while on our fall trip.

On Wednesday the Captain and Adjutant met with the State Department officials. The remainder left on a bus tour to East Berlin.

In the afternoon all went to Army Headquarters to finalize all arrangements to date.

The following day the entire group left by plane for Frankfurt. There we made arrangements for a short tour of the city and to have lunch at a restaurant which is atop a huge tower that revolves so that it is possible to view the entire countryside.

On the following day the entire group left for Lisbon.

After being greeted at the airport by officials we went by taxi to our hotel in Estoril. That evening the entire group went to a casino owned by the hotel for the night club show.

The next morning the Captain and Paymaster met with the hotel manager to discuss all of the items that would be necessary to ensure the Company's pleasurable stay in the fall.

In the afternoon we met with Major VanEynde to discuss with him all of our anticipated problems and to make sure that all would go smoothly.

On Sunday we checked out all of the possibilities of where to hold our church services.

Monday, the entire group went to Fatima. Also we arranged to have lunch at a fishing village Nazare.

Monday, we went to the Embassy to talk over all of the problems to date and to make sure that everything had been finalized.

The next day we went on a tour that we believe should be made by the Company arranged to have lunch at a picturesque restaurant on the way.

The following day we went on a tour of Lisbon that would be quite interesting for the Company in the fall.

That evening we had the officials to dinner and to ensure that all arrangements were finalized.

The following morning off to the airport and home.

THE 330TH FALL FIELD DAY TOUR OF DUTY BANQUET
BERLIN HILTON HOTEL, BERLIN, GERMANY

2 October 1967

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO presiding:

Gentlemen: will you please remain standing while I call upon our Chaplain, Reverend Frank J. Bauer, for the invocation.

(Our Father in German). In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; the eyes of all wait upon Thee, O Lord, now givest them their mete in due season. Thou openest Thine hand and satisfiest the desires of every living thing. Lord God Heavenly Father, bless us and these gifts that we receive from Thy bounty, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Please remain standing, gentlemen. I will now introduce our Toastmaster of the evening, the Adjutant, Brigadier General Fred E. Pereira, who will propose the First Regular Toast.

Gentlemen: the First Regular Toast: the President of the United States.

Song: The Star Spangled Banner

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

Will you all be seated now. Will you give me your attention, please. At this time, I will read a few letters which were received by me in connection with this Banquet. The first one, is from Bonn, Germany, September 14, 1967, addressed to Captain Ralph J. DeStefano, Commanding Officer, Headquarters, The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, Massachusetts, Fanueil Hall, Boston. Dear Captain DeStefano: Thank you very much for your letter of September 7 and the invitation to attend your Company's Annual Banquet in Berlin on October the second. Unfortunately, I have an official commitment in Cologne that evening: I am hosting a reception at the American Exhibit Hall of the Agricultural and Food Fair. I sincerely regret that I cannot be with you on this important occasion, and hope that you and your Company will have a pleasant Tour of Duty in Berlin. With every good wish, Sincerely yours, George C. McGee, American Ambassador.

I have another. United States Senate, addressed to Captain Ralph J. DeStefano, Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, Fanueil Hall, Boston, Mass. Dear Captain DeStefano: Thank you for your recent letter and kind invitation to participate in Memorial Services in Berlin on October 2. Although I would like to join with the members of your company, unfortunately long-standing commitments in New Jersey and Pennsylvania on that day make it impossible for me to accept your invitation. I certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness, and want to extend my best wishes for a successful Field Tour. Sincerely, Edward M. Kennedy.

At this time, I will introduce the distinguished guests at the head table. I will only introduce those who will not be called upon to speak. Starting on my immediate right, I take great pleasure in introducing to you, I know he needs no introduction, since you all know him well, my First Lieutenant and your First Lieutenant. He's been very helpful to me in planning this Fall Tour of Duty. I really don't know what I would have done without him — Lieutenant Clayton.

On his right, the former Ambassador to the Republic of Chad, formerly Deputy Chief to the American Embassy in Bonn, Minister Brewster H. Morris.

The next gentleman is well known to a few members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company. As a Past Commander and my Chief of Staff, he has also been a great help to me in this trip, Colonel George A. Turain.

The next gentleman is the District Mayor of Schoeneberg, Dr. Josef Grunner.

A former Commander of the Centennial Legion, a former member of our Finance Committee and a Past Commander, Colonel Augustus J. Migell.

Political Advisor, U. S. Mission in Berlin, Mr. Parker D. Wyman.

Former Commander of the famous 26th Yankee Division and a Past Commander, Major General Reginald A. Maurer.

Head of the Berlin Office, Federal Foreign Affairs, Mr. Klaus Hoffman.

The next gentleman is also well known to you. I know him well because I served under him as Second Lieutenant. He is our Past Commander, Colonel Frederick A. York, Jr.

The next gentleman is the Deputy District Mayor of Neukoelln, Dr. Heinz Stuecklen.

A member of our Air National Guard, and our comrade, Brigadier General Francis J. King.

Commander of Polics Group South, City of Berlin, Mr. Edgar Voigt.

Our protestant chaplain and senior chaplain of the Yankee Division, Lieutenant Colonel Frank J. Bauer.

Standing on my left, on my immediate left, I would like to present a career diplomat and the former British Ambassador to Vietnam, presently Minister and Deputy Commandant of British Forces in Berlin, Minister R.G.A. Etherington-Smith, CMG.

The next gentleman you all know very well. He is our Second Lieutenant. He also has been a tower of strength during the months we have worked to make this trip possible. I take great pleasure in presenting Lieutenant Edward J. Keelan.

The Deputy French Commander and the French Troop Commander, Colonel Roger André.

Chairman of the CDU Faction, House of Representatives, and Chairman of Berlin CDU, Mr. Franz Amrehn.

One of our leading lights in civil defense and a Past Commander, Colonel Harold P. MacLeod.

A military aide to His Excellency Governor John A. Volpe, Secretary of the Finance Committee, and a Past Commander, Colonel I. Jerome O'Connor.

Brigade Commander, Berlin Command, Brigadier General James Baldwin.

The next gentleman you have met before. At least, if you were awake you did. Chief of Staff, USCOB, Colonel Richard H. Ferriter.

A District Court Judge, and a Past Commander, Major Allan Roy Kingston.

The Commandant of the Massachusetts Military Academy, Major General Vincent P. Coyne.

The Head of the Information Center in Berlin, Mr. Werner Steltzer.

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and a member of our Air National Guard, Brigadier General Richard E. McLaughlin.

Commander, Templehof Central Airport, Colonel Thomas A. Personett.

Our Catholic Chaplain and the former Senior Chaplain of the 26th Division, Brigadier General Laurence M. Brock, S.J.

I would now call upon the Adjutant for the Second Regular Toast. Please rise.

THE ADJUTANT:

Before I give the Toast, I wish that everybody will remain in the hall until all the speakers have been called on. We have only four Toasts, and I wish that you would remain quiet so that we can hear what is going on. Thank you.

The Second Regular Toast, the United States of America, a great nation that stands four-square for liberty, and which offers throughout the world a hand of help and friendship. Gentlemen, I give you the United States of America.

Be seated please.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

In answer to that Toast, I call upon a gentleman who in August of 1957 was assigned to the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, as Chief of Staff of the Army Advisory Group. In 1962 he assumed duties as Chief of Staff, Headquarters, Central Army Group NATO, Germany. In June 1965 he served as Commanding General, U. S. Army Training Center, Fort Ord, California, and is presently United States Commander in Berlin and Commander United States Forces in Berlin and Deputy Chief of Mission, Major General Robert George Fergusson.

GENERAL FERGUSON:

Thank you very much, Captain DeStefano. In response to this Toast I would first like to congratulate the members of this assembly on your very fine appearance this morning at Templehof and at the Rathaus in Schoeneberg. We Americans in Berlin are very conscious of the image that the United States presents, and I assure you gentlemen that you did yourself proud this morning. I'm sure that you noted that our rifle platoon, the honor guard platoon, was not a pick up squad of supply crews, that they are our finest. They look fine, and I'm very happy that this is so, because you looked fine as you marched into the Memorial area. This famous military organization, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, was organized in support of freedom, and for over 300 years it has supported this concept. So it is very fitting that you came here for your Annual Field Day here in this beautiful City of Berlin, which is the very citadel of freedom. As you know, your former comrade and very distinguished and beloved President, John F. Kennedy, greatly admired the people of Berlin. He stated here: "We are defending the freedom of Paris and New York when we defend the freedom of Berlin." And he was also talking about Boston as well. Now on behalf of the American Mission and United States forces in Berlin, I am presenting a scroll to the Company. This is the United States Commander, Berlin: be it known that the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, having ventured east of the Alps and behind the Iron Curtain, and having indicated its sympathy and support for the cause of freedom, in this divided city, has taken a place in the forefront of free world resistance of Communism, and in recognition whereof is hereby designated, from this day forward, as Guardian of Berlin's Freedom. Given in freedom's name, this second day of October, Archie Fergusson, Major General, U. S. Commander, Berlin.

I have here a similar one, addressed to Captain Ralph J. DeStefano. Gentlemen, I hope you do enjoy your precious time here in Berlin. I can assure you that we are very happy to have you here, and I know that some members of my staff have also. I've noticed that my Junior Aide, Lieutenant Dirickson, is already picking up a Boston accent. I know you are all also happy, as we are, about the Red Sox. Thank you.

CAPTAIN DESTEFANO:

Thank you, General Fergusson. I will see to it that the scroll submitted to the Company will take its place among other famous relics we have in our Armory at Faneuil Hall. And as Captain Commanding of this great Company, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Now the Company in turn has something which we feel is a very small token of our appreciation for all you, your men under you, and your entire staff have done to make this trip possible. There are many Past Commanders in this organization who realize that without the aid of men like you, these trips would not be possible. So really, thank you.

This replica of a Paul Revere bowl I hope you will keep amongst your souvenirs, and think of us from time to time.

Will you now give your attention to the Adjutant, who will propose the Third Regular Toast.

THE ADJUTANT:

The Third Regular Toast: The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, rich in art, rich in science, rich in culture and rich in the love of freedom. This state, whose sons have graced the highest office in our country, whose sons have the highest honors in all walks of life, I give you, gentlemen, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

CAPTAIN DESTEFANO:

Before I call on the gentleman to respond to the Toast, I will read a letter which is dated September 6, 1967, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Executive Department, State House, Boston. Captain Ralph J. DeStefano, Commanding the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, Faneuil Hall, Boston, Mass. Dear Ralph: Thank you for forwarding the itinerary for the Ancient and Honorable Artillery's Fall Field Day Tour of Duty. As I suspected my schedule will not permit me to make this trip. You can be assured my thoughts will be with you, even though I must remain behind. My best wishes for an enjoyable trip. Sincerely, John (Governor).

I will now call upon the gentleman who was chosen by His Excellency to respond to this toast. He is the Auditor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and is representing His Excellency, Governor John A. Volpe, of Massachusetts. The Honorable Thaddeus Buczko.

THE HONORABLE THADDEUS BUCZKO:

Captain DeStefano, distinguished guests at the head table, gentlemen, members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts. To you Captain Sir, and all of your distinguished members. I sincerely and humbly respond on behalf of His Excellency, Governor John A. Volpe, and the almost six million citizens of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, by congratulating this illustrious organization, comprised of illustrious citizens of our great state. Yours, sir, is a great organization, an organization which has a noble heritage, steeped very deeply in great history and in tradition, and its members have always devoted themselves to a righteous, Christian, and honorable standard of living. Your past deeds are recorded in the great annals of the history of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This beloved Commonwealth, through me on behalf of the Governor and the citizens, pledge the Toast that was already pledged here, and answer and respond to it, to a great future, that will in every measure be as great as the past of your organization. In the constancy of your devotion, your fellow citizens have derived a great source of pleasure, and also, derived a great source of pride and inspiration. Let us all who are gathered here this evening remember the greatness of the past, and pledge to our God, our country, our state and our families, that we will continue on the bright future that we have had, so the future is what you make of it, each and every individual member of the great and illustrious company. We must work together and make sure that freedom survives and continues as it has in the past. Thank you.

CAPTAIN DESTEFANO:

I will now call upon the Adjutant for the Fourth Regular Toast.

THE ADJUTANT:

The Fourth Regular Toast: The City of Berlin, a beautiful city of parks and culture, friendly and patriotic, emblematic of the highest ideals and good government, duty and friendship. Gentlemen, I give you the truly beautiful city, our host, the City of Berlin.

CAPTAIN DESTEFANO:

To respond to that toast, I call upon the chief of the Senate Protocol Office, representing Mayor Albertz, Dr. Ruprecht Rauch.

DR. RUPRECHT RAUCH:

Gentlemen, such is political life that I find myself in the unexpected situation of being privileged to be the deputy for the Governing Mayor of Berlin in thanking you for and replying to the Toast which was just pronounced to Berlin. I'm doing this being fully aware of the honor to be your guest and to be able to convey to you the best wishes of the Governing Mayor of Berlin, Herr Albertz, thanking you for choosing Berlin for your annual dinner of 1967. This is most certainly not only the most colorful gathering I've had the pleasure to address in this city, but it is at the same time surely the most unique one, in that it is a gathering of 200 gentlemen who for no other reason—no congress, no business matter—than for their interest in seeing this city have come here and will spend a few days in this Berlin, which is so close to your great country, which has learnt so much from it, which is being perpetually kept in safe quarter by the men of your forces that are garrisoned in Berlin. This is why we are particularly glad, particularly grateful, for you to have come here, and I wish, and I'm sure, that I say this in full agreement with the man whom I'm representing just now. I hope that during your stay in Berlin you will be able to see both sides of the picture that Berlin represents, that Berlin at the same time is a very tragic symbol of the partitioning lines that run through Europe and that this City of Berlin is trying in spite of all this to be a normal, gay city, with normal, gay people who want to enjoy themselves just as any other citizens in any other part of the world. And it is in this sense that I hope your stay in Berlin will be a pleasant and memorable one. Gentlemen, let me thank you again in the name of the Governing Mayor for coming to Berlin, thank you again that I've had the privilege of being with you tonight, hoping that one day you will see this city again in situations which are more favorable, more like the freedom that you are fighting for. Thank you.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

Will you give your attention to the Adjutant, who will propose the Fifth Regular Toast.

THE ADJUTANT:

The Fifth—and last—Regular Toast: to the City of Boston, rich in tradition, looking ever upward, outward and onward. Gentlemen, I give you the hub of the universe—the City of Boston.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

Before I call upon the gentleman to respond to that Toast, I was asked by the Mayor, John F. Collins, to explain his absence. He had planned on being on this trip with us, up to three days before we departed. But as you are well aware, he had a severe case of pneumonia three weeks ago, and was not fully recovered so that the doctors would permit him to come. However, in his place he designated his Assessor, the Honorable Mario Misci, to respond to this Toast.

THE HONORABLE MARIO MISCI:

Captain Commanding Ralph DeStefano, Reverend Fathers, Officials of the City of Berlin, and other guests at the head table, members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts. Until just a few days before our departure, as Captain DeStefano informed you, Mayor Collins had every intention of being here with us. And he looked forward to it with great anticipation. But when he found that he was unable to come, he delegated to me the pleasant duty of extending to you, to the Officials of the City of Berlin, and to the people of the City of Berlin, his warmest greetings, and he asked me to exchange the kind and long greeting that was extended to us from the City of Berlin. If he's not with us here in person, I assure you that he's here with us spiritually. Thank you.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

There is a gentleman here at the head table whom I feel should be introduced, and I know that he would like to say a few words. This gentleman, in 1938, brought the Honourable Artillery Company to Boston, to celebrate our 300th anniversary, and was later Vice-president of the Honourable Artillery Company. The Major is now our Honorary Member in England. I call upon Major John A. Hill.

MAJOR JOHN A. HILL:

Captain Commanding, distinguished guests, and members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, I am very honored to be here this evening as a representative of my own and of the mother company. I'm very grateful for being asked, and I'm very glad to be among this Company, which I regard as where I have so many friends. It's exactly 30 years since I first met the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, and I may say that over that time they certainly haven't been any worse than they were then! I find that now there are many more lawyers in the Company. In those days they seemed to be all generals, and when there are lawyers present, I'm afraid one has to be very careful of what one says. I met a lady on the plane the other day, and I heard her say "I'm tired of lawyers, sick and tired of them, trying to get away from them since my husband died, been pestered by lawyers all the time. I almost wish he hadn't died!" Captain Commanding thank you very much for asking me here this evening, an honor which I greatly appreciate, and may I wish you during your term of office all good fortune and good wishes.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO:

At this time, I call the Honorable Brewster H. Morris to the podium.

Mister Minister, you also contributed much to the possibility and the realization of this wonderful trip. I know you and your men have done everything in your power to make our stay here that much more enjoyable. This is a small token of how much we appreciate your efforts, and the efforts of the men under you, who worked with us to make this trip possible. I therefore present to you a replica Paul Revere bowl.

Reverend Clergy, General Fergusson, Minister Etherington-Smith, Minister Morris, Colonel André, Dr. Rauch, Distinguished Guests and my Comrades.

As Captain Commanding, I know I speak for all the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts present this evening, when I say how delighted we are to be in Berlin, how deeply impressed we have been during our short time here by the progress and vitality of the Berliners, and how apparent it is to us, that the fate of us all, Germans, British, French and Americans alike, has been bound up for more than twenty-two years in working together to keep the western sectors of this great city free, prosperous and a vivid symbol of the future that awaits Berlin in the reunited Germany to come.

All of us gathered here this evening can understand what moved our late and dearly beloved President John F. Kennedy, himself a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, to say those now-famous words, "Ich Bin Ein Berliner," on the occasion of his triumphal visit in June 1963.

Governing Mayor Albertz told us this morning how proud Berliners are to have had President Kennedy as a citizen of their city, but can you imagine how proud President Kennedy must have been that day, surely one of the most exciting of his life, to be received by hundreds of thousands of Berliners as a fellow Berliner? Certainly one of the most significant moments of this Company's Fall Field Day Tour of Duty was our wreath laying ceremony this morning in front of the plaque placed at the steps of Rathaus Schoeneberg in memory of President Kennedy by the government and the people of this city.

The Company had earlier marched to the Airlift Memorial at Tempelhof, where we honored the memory not of one man but of those Allies and those Berliners who lost their lives in helping to carry out that magnificent response to the blockade of Berlin. The dramatic Airlift Memorial symbolizes what free men anywhere can do when they work together to overcome threats to their liberty and to their very survival.

Our own Company — chartered in 1638 — stands as a shining example of Democracy in action. It is the oldest military organization in the entire Western Hemisphere. It has lived and prospered for some 330 years and with God's help it will continue. The history of our Company is a living and continuing history of our Country. Its members have included presidents: Monroe — Arthur — Coolidge and Kennedy — United States Senators, a Secretary of State, Governors, jurists and countless numbers of distinguished military men.

Our members have participated in the early Indian Wars of the Colony, the French and Indian War and at the Boston Tea Party. They were numbered among the Sons of Liberty — sponsors of our national independence. They participated in Shay's Rebellion and were last alerted as a group for war during the War of 1812. Members now present here were counted in the American Expeditionary Force of World War I and there are many of us here who know personally the rigors of World War II.

And so this year finds us on our 330th Fall Field Day Tour of Duty as visitors in West Berlin. Like any other group of tourists here, we are caught up in seeing all that Berlin has to offer, the contrasts of the old and the very modern, and the cultural events of the Berlin Festival now going on. I know some of us have relatives to find — some of us will renew old friendships while here — and I am even more certain that most of us have every intention of making as many new friendships as possible in the short time we will be with you.

I will now call upon our Catholic Chaplain, Brigadier General Laurence M. Brock, S.J., for benediction.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Almighty and eternal God, we give you thanks for these and all Thy benefits, and blessings, which we have received from Thy bounty, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

I hereby declare the 330th Fall Field Day Tour of Duty Banquet adjourned.

(Auld Lang Syne)

The Stairway of the Constitution

THE STAIRWAY OF THE CONSTITUTION

It is believed that Bulfinch designed the stairway leading from the main floor of the Armory to Headquarters. The thirteen steps have been memorialized by thirteen bronze tablets, each dedicated to one of the Thirteen Original States of the Union. The tablet on each riser, running from bottom to top, commemorates the order in which the first thirteen States ratified the Constitution. On Monday, 17 May 1937, the dedicatory exercises with respect to these thirteen bronze tablets took place and this memorial was officially designated "The Stairway of the Constitution".

In May of 1968, Captain DeStefano arranged for and had installed the present day flags of the thirteen original states. The flag of the respective state is placed on each step.

Dates of Ratification by States

The Constitution was ratified by the thirteen original states in the following order:

DELAWARE, December 7, 1787
PENNSYLVANIA, December 12, 1787
NEW JERSEY, December 18, 1787
GEORGIA, January 2, 1788
CONNECTICUT, January 9, 1788
MASSACHUSETTS, February 6, 1788
MARYLAND, April 28, 1788
SOUTH CAROLINA, May 23, 1788
NEW HAMPSHIRE, June 21, 1788
VIRGINIA, June 25, 1788
NEW YORK, July 26, 1788
NORTH CAROLINA, November 21, 1789
RHODE ISLAND, May 29, 1790

The Continental Congress on September 13, 1788, proclaimed the ratification by nine states, and ordered the convening of the new government on March 4, 1789.

REPORT OF THE QUARTERMASTER

Captain Commanding, Officers, Past Commanders and my comrades: I wish to report at this time, that all military property of this company has been inventoried, and is on hand and accounted for. The Company Flag has been repaired and equipment has been cleaned and polished.

I would like to thank the Finance Committee for their cooperation in making possible the purchase of our State Flag.

On the Fall Trip, I was assisted in my duties by the following to whom I extend my appreciation: COL Frederick A. York, COL John Bowes, CPT Robert Emens, MAJ Leonard Smith, LT Joseph Macquarrie, LT George Fudge and LT Joseph Brackett.

Thanks to our comrade, CPT John Reynolds, who so kindly furnished the Company with cartons, paper and tape for our Fall Trip, at no charge to the Company.

You would judge me remiss if I did not take this opportunity to thank those whose help makes the performance of my duties less demanding, namely COL James R. Lowell, LT Joseph Kreas, CPT Leo Bourdon, COL Lewis Whittemore, LTC Elwin M. Nesmith, SGT Sidney Abbott, SGT Sidney Hoffman, SGT Hjalmar Anderson, SGT John Murray, CPT Joseph Zareiko and LT Charles Abizaid.

As always, the assistance given me by the Sergeants of Infantry and Artillery throughout the past year was one of willingness and generosity. They were a most cooperative group of Sergeants.

Respectfully submitted,

LT Joseph A. Milano
Quartermaster

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

as at 31 May 1967 submitted

3 February 1968

TO: Members of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

The Rules and Regulations call for a written report to the Company in their capacity as Trustees of the various funds as well as any funds controlled by the Standing Committee as Trustee. This report is several months behind schedule and I guess the responsibility for the tardiness rests entirely upon my shoulders, but there have been many situations that have arisen this past year that have caused delays beyond my control.

The Finance Committee has seen fit this last year to straighten out quite a few problems and I think we must realize that times are a little bit different today in regards to getting things accomplished due to the rush of the present day situation. As we have not been able to get the audited report as rapidly as we want it, my report is going to be very short and open.

I would like to state that all of the various accounts which are under the control of the Finance Committee have been checked, interest has been brought up to date, they are all clean and accounted for, and everything checks out perfectly.

The funds held by the Permanent Fund have been personally reviewed by COL I. J. O'Connor, P.C., including the stocks and bonds. We have received an accounting from the Permanent Fund and everything is in order. The interest is up to date and everything is, as usual, very well controlled and handled by the very fine group of Trustees of the Permanent Fund.

The Fall Field Day Tour of Duty Account has been checked, everything has been completed and that is in good order.

The Auditor appointed by the Finance Committee, LTC Philip E. Morin, and our Paymaster have reviewed and checked all of the Journal Accounts and everything is in order.

Even though this report is late in getting to you, I sincerely hope that you will believe that the delays were not from lack of interest, but caused by problems outside of the control of the Finance Committee. Everything has been checked and double checked and is in excellent shape.

Very sincerely yours,

LT John B. Perkins, Chairman
Finance Committee

REPORT OF THE
MILITARY MUSEUM AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE

In accordance with Section 6, Article VIII, Rules and Regulations of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, the Military Museum and Library Committee herewith submits its Annual Report for the Fiscal Year 1967-1968.

During the year, the following gifts were received:

Display case of all U.S. Military Decorations and many of the Service Medals. The display includes all of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Military Decorations. It took about two years to accumulate and assemble this display.

25 July 1967 — 1 French Cavalry Sabre — from Cadet John Nicholson, Massachusetts Military Academy

25 July 1967 — 1 Confederate Sword — from LT David Nicholson, 1st Battalion 101st Infantry

7 September 1967 — Souvenir Book of 1903 — from Mr. Frank Capuano

11 October 1967 — 1 Marine Dress Sword — from MG William A. Morton, U.S.M.C. (Life Member)

20 November 1967 — 1 Book, Marine Corps Reserve (A History) — from MG William A. Worton, U.S.M.C. (Life Member)

12 February 1968 — Navy Cross — from CPT Robert L. Howard, U.S.N.R. (Retired)

27 May 1968 — Hand Carved Stone Bird — from Jean Drapeau, Mayor of Montreal

The Committee, under LTC Arthur J. Swett, prepared a display of Service Ribbons and Medals which is very unusual and very interesting to our visitors.

The Committee, in conjunction with the Captain Commanding, purchased and installed flags of the 13 original States on the Stairway of the Constitution to add a strong and vivid display to our Museum.

Our Museum had over 60,000 visitors during the past year, of whom 10,000 signed the visitors' book. They came from all over the world. One day there were 2,000 visitors. During this day, our Curator, SGT Sidney M. Abbott gave group lectures. SGT Abbott is prepared and well qualified to give special treatment to any organized group of visitors. We inspected the original Charter of our Company which is located within the new State Archives Museum in the basement of the State Capitol. The Charter was found to be in good condition.

SGT William F. DiPesa, Chairman and SGT William F. McCarty, Secretary, examined the Century Box in the vaults of the Statler Branch of the State Street Bank and Trust Company and it was found to be in good order with the seals intact. Also, safe in the same vaults, are our two metal boxes containing copies of the pictures of our Past Commanders from 1638 to 1959.

The Committee wishes to thank the Executive Secretary, COL Lewis W. Whittemore, Donald McDonald, Martin Connelly and John Gilboy for their conscientious assistance during the past year.

SERGEANTS' ACTIVITIES

It was a memorable day for the Sergeants of 1967-1968 when on June Day we were elected. Following the Drum Head election and the review at the Common, we led our sections back to the Sheraton Plaza Hotel whereupon we hosted a cocktail party, games, plus a hospitality room for the Ancients and their guests.

Our original meeting together sponsored 100% enthusiasm in fulfilling our duties as Sergeants in every way expected and we are sure that all members can verify the fact that our year was most successful. It is with pleasure that we have the opportunity to mention just a few of the highlights of our efforts.

At the end of June, our first party was held at the Colonial C.C. in Lynnfield which represented an all day affair plus the banquet in the evening. The weather was not favorable but a hospitality room was immediately made available whereupon the members could make themselves comfortable.

The same month also gave us the opportunity to present a check for $100. to one of the graduates of the Massachusetts Military Academy.

Knowing that all members cannot participate in the FFD-TD, we sponsored a free Bon Voyage party for all members which was held at the Armory. A fine turnout made the party a complete success.

Just prior to leaving on the FFD-TD, a raffle for a free trip was held and the winner was a guest of one of our fine comrades.

We are proud to say that the entire complement of Sergeants joined the Company on the FFD-TD. Liquid refreshments were provided and served by the Sergeants on the plane and a complimentary gift was given to all participants.

During our stay in Berlin, a cocktail party with all the extras was held at the roof garden of the Hotel Europaischer Hof. Entertainment was provided by a professional agency which included local television talent.

Our next stop in Portugal left the Sergeants slightly embarrassed as our entire shipment of refreshments was held up at the airport but, nevertheless, another cocktail party was given in the Captain's rooftop suite which overlooked the best part of the city. Once again, the Sergeants joined together with all their resources to make a successful party. We sincerely thank our Captain for making his suite available to us.

In December, a Christmas party was held at the Sheraton Plaza which included a fine meal and entertainment. This proved to be one of the biggest gatherings of the year.

In the latter part of January the Sergeants provided hospitality on the train to and from New York on the trip to the Old Guard Ball. Favors were presented to the ladies and a musician was made available by the candidates for Second Lieutenant to allow all our singing comrades to perform.

Our year had to be unusual as we were involved in a second official Foreign Trip to Canada in celebration of Massachusetts Day at Expo and almost 100% of the Sergeants attended to perform their necessary functions.

The farewell party was held at the Hotel Lenox which, in our opinion, was the party of the year. An elaborate buffet, a tremendous floor show, and a most unusual gift had to make this evening a night to remember.

We as Sergeants can only say that our time in office will be a year to remember as long as we live. For this we must express our deepest gratitude to the 1967-1968 Staff but, most important, to all the members who supported us.

LUNCHEON AND RECEPTION TO GOVERNOR FANEUIL HALL

At 1400 hours the Company sat down for its annual Governor's Day Dinner. All the commanding generals and admirals of the local military and naval installations were present. Also at the head table were the British Consul-General, and many other distinguished people as well as our own Past Commanders.

The head table was introduced by Captain DeStefano. Governor Volpe was in his usual good form and gave an excellent speech. He was presented with a handsome stereo set. Captain DeStefano gave a short and impressive talk on Washington's Birthday and the meaning of the day in this modern world.

Comments by Captain DeStefano upon presentation of Magnavox Hi-Fi Stereo which was presented to Governor Volpe on 2/22/68.

May I, on behalf of your comrades present you with this small token of our sincere affection. We hope that you will be able to enjoy many happy and relaxing hours with it, whether here or at home or in another large city.

CPT DeStefano then addressed the gathering as follows:

As we gather here once again today to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the father of our country, George Washington, I like to feel that we are helping in perpetuating one of our country's finer traditions. We are a relatively young nation with a great sense of urgency and I think that many times we tend to exploit our heritage rather than truly cherishing and keeping alive these traditions that maintain a sense of continuity between generations; traditions that in trying times such as these, furnish us a point of orientation and a basis of self evaluation. Our Company, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company is, in a sense, a living tradition. Members of this Company were contemporaries and associates of George Washington. Other members followed in his footsteps both as soldiers and statesmen and as President. In this very building Thomas Paine, Benjamin Franklin and others ignited the spark that led to our freedom. I think all of us are familiar with the history of our Company and I think we all have enjoyed and admired the story of President George Washington ever since our early school days. I think today therefore we might reflect a moment on the importance of this day from another aspect. We might think of today as an opportunity for us to properly observe another truly American tradition. I think one of our great problems with the younger generation is their lack of a sense of tradition. We have so commercialized our traditions that they have ceased to have meaning. Our family traditions, military and religious traditions are being destroyed in the name of expediency, progress and profit. Without tradition a country has no past and without a past a man has no future. Our ancestors brought their traditions with them, our children and their children must have a tie to the past with a greater span than one that reaches back only to the most recent war. Tradition is one sure way we have of maintaining our social and moral values. We might therefore today when thinking of George Washington and looking around on the walls of this room and of this building, think for a moment of how we can pass on some of these traditions with which our Country, our State and our Company are so richly endowed.

Our member, Thomas A. Culbertson put on Seiler's excellent dinner and everybody enjoyed it immensely. After the dinner the head table guests were entertained at Headquarters by Captain DeStefano.

DRUM HEAD ELECTION AT EXPO '67 MONTREAL, CANADA

Saturday thru Monday, 19, 20 and 21 August 1967

This was a most unusual event in that it marked the first time in the History of the Company that there were two official tours of the Company outside of the United States in one company year.

On Saturday, 19 August at 11:30 P.M., 60 Ancients departed Boston on a Northeast Jet to Montreal, Canada, to perform a mock "Drum Head Election" at Expo '67 on the occasion of Massachusetts Day, Monday, 21 August. Some forty-five minutes later we arrived at Montreal and there buses were waiting to transport the men to the Sutton Arms Apartment Motel located approximately five miles west of Downtown Montreal, and some seven miles west of Expo '67.

CPT DeStefano, LT Clayton, LT Keelan, COL York, P.C., LT Cosgrove and LTC Lane, however, went directly to Expo to confer with the Massachusetts Day officials regarding the logistics of our mock election. The site of the affair is named the Place des Nations and can be described as a large open area facing a stage, with a grandstand at the rear and a V.I.P. Box left front. Altogether, it has a seating capacity of over 12,000 people; the area available to perform our maneuver was extremely limited and it became readily apparent that considerable implementation would be necessary. The Captain had previously issued orders to all members to be prepared to leave the Motel by buses to Expo at 8:30 A.M. Sunday for our first drill. In spite of intermittent rain and the early hour, attendance was excellent. Much time and effort was expended by all under the capable leadership of the Captain and LTC Morin, acting Adjutant, in working out the details of the formation, the Drum Head Election, and the commissioning of the Officers within the available space, and with the relatively small number of men. The Company was dismissed at about 11 A.M. and the balance of the day was free for Expo '67.

Monday at 2 P.M. a final dress rehearsal was held on a playground behind our Motel. Here the entire maneuver was repeated numerous times, so that all knew exactly what to do and do it smoothly. This drill was attended by all and lasted until 3:30 P.M. at which time we boarded buses to the Mount Royal Hotel. Here Governor Volpe, distinguished guests and the Ancients were honored at a Cocktail and Buffet Dinner given by Gillette of Canada.

At approximately 6 P.M. we were transported to the Place des Nations. At 7:00 P.M. we marched double file to a position in front of the stage, forming a wing on either side of the Colors, and facing an overflow audience of some 14,000 people. The Captain and the Lieutenants marched up the center aisle to the rear of the audience to receive Governor Volpe and escort him to the stage. Our Commander in Chief received a tremendous ovation. The square was formed by the front row of each wing with the rear row holding fast. Sergeants Murphy and MacKenzie effected the role of the twelve sergeants in passing out and collecting the ballots. After the Company reformed to its original position, LTC Morin announced the results of the Election.

The Company then did an about-face and the officers and adjutants formed in front of their sections facing the Governor with the audience to our rear. Halberds were handed to COL York, P.C., LT Cosgrove and MAJ Smith — representing the outgoing officers. Gov. Volpe accepted the resignations of the outgoing officers and commissioned the new officers as is done on June Day, with the exception that the resigning officers formed behind the Governor to act as escort to his box — at the conclusion of the ceremony. The Company marched out of the area amidst hearty applause.

COL I. Jerome O'Connor, P.C., was narrator and, from the stage, apprised the audience of the History of the Ancients and explained the Drum Head Election.

On dismissing the Company, Captain DeStefano thanked each and every one for their excellent cooperation, and praised all for executing the mock Drum Head Election in true military style.

Most of the men stayed to hear the Boston Pops Orchestra under the direction of Arthur Fiedler.

Tuesday, we returned to Boston, arriving shortly after 2 P.M. The consensus was that all had a wonderful time, and all were proud to have had the opportunity to represent the Company as a whole at Expo '67.

SHERATON BOSTON HOTEL

Monday, 1 January 1968

In response to the invitation of Mayor-Elect Kevin Hagan White, the Captain Commanding provided a detail of officers and members in uniform to act as a military escort and Honor Guard at the Mayor's Inaugural Ball. The Mayor and Mrs. White were escorted by the Ancients into the Grand Ballroom where the orchestra was drowned out by the enthusiastic cheers of the well wishers. After the Mayor had greeted the more than 3,000 people crowded into the ballroom, the detail then escorted the couple to the Commonwealth Room to greet some of the overflow crowd and thence to the Fairfax Room to greet the remaining guests who had not been previously greeted.

After the Captain and the detail escorted the Mayor and Mrs. White back to the Grand Ballroom, the Mayor expressed his congratulations and thanks to the Captain and the Company for the splendid appearance and assistance rendered by the members this evening. The Ancients looked their best and added color and splendor to the occasion.

PRESENTATION OF COLORS OF THE FIFTY STATES

Tuesday, 1 August 1967

At the invitation of Mayor John F. Collins, the Company furnished fifty members to act as bearers for the Colors of the fifty States at the Annual Mayors' Conference Banquet at the War Memorial Auditorium.

Participating members of the Company first attended the reception held in the lobby of the Auditorium at 7 P.M. Uniform was Parade Dress with belt and white gloves.

After the guests were seated (approximately 8 P.M.), the color bearers, preceded by the Color Guard of the A&HAC, paraded down the center aisle one at a time. Each color bearer carried the flag of one of the fifty States to the stage while the orchestra played the State Song of that particular State. After the fifty State flags were presented, the flag of the City of Boston was carried to the stage escorted by the Captain and Officers. Following the procession of flags, the Fife and Drum Corps of the Concord Minute Men paraded to the stage and played several numbers. Mayor Collins was very pleased with the spectacle and was very complimentary to the A&HAC in his closing remarks.

This was not only an important occasion for the City of Boston, it was a very important occasion for the Company. This ceremony gave the Company exposure, possibly for the first time in our long and hallowed history, to a truly representative group from all the cities throughout our fifty states.

ROYAL CANADIAN ARTILLERY
GUNNERS' BALL

Saturday, 2 December 1967

An invitation to attend the Annual Gunners' Ball was received from LTC Albert H. Malouf, President of the Artillery Officers' Association of Montreal.

Captain DeStefano and the Adjutant, BG Pereira, left Logan Airport for the affair on 2 December 1967.

After an uneventful trip of 42 minutes they were met at the Montreal Airport by a military escort and taken to their hotel in Montreal.

The same escort took them to Colonel Malouf's house for cocktails and then to the armory where the Captain and the Adjutant were head table guests at a sumptuous banquet.

The next day (Sunday) they were invited to the home of the new President, Colonel C. F. Harrington and Mrs. Harrington, for cocktails. Later they were dinner guests of Colonel and Mrs. Malouf at a leading restaurant in Montreal. They were then taken to the airport by Colonel and Mrs. Malouf for their return trip to Boston.

OLD GUARD OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK — 1826
Member of Centennial Legion of Historic Military Commands
142nd ANNIVERSARY BALL

Saturday, 27 January 1968

On Friday, 26 January 1968, 176 members of the Ancients and their escorts boarded the A&HAC Special Train for New York.

The trip was most enjoyable as entertainment was furnished by CDR Lamphier and CPT Reynolds. The Sergeants under the direction of SGT Murphy and SGT MacKenzie took care of refreshments and a box lunch was distributed to each person on the trip.

Arriving in New York on schedule, we were assigned rooms in the Hotel Commodore. After "freshening up" we were taken by motorcoach to the Latin Quarter for dinner and to see a delightful show by Lou Walters entitled "Glorious Pamsienne" and billed as the "Most exciting, greatest show in Latin Quarter History."

Friday night after the show Captain DeStefano entertained the members and guests in his suite until the "wee small hours" of the morning.

Saturday morning was spent in shopping and individual sight seeing. In the afternoon most of the members went to St. James Theatre to see Pearl Bailey in "Hello Dolly." This is one of the outstanding shows of all times and those attending were loud in their praise of it.

The remaining members, who could not get tickets for "Hello Dolly," enjoyed another outstanding performance of Betsy Palmer and Lloyd Bridges in "Cactus Flower."

After both shows the members met at TIME & LIFE Building and went to the Tower Suite. The view of New York City from the height of this suite was delightful. The dinner served here was "out of this world." Each table had a maitre d' and an assistant so the service was the best ever and the delicious food served in the Continental manner will long be remembered by those attending.

Promptly at 2300 hours BG Pereira, the Adjutant, had the Company "fall in" for the Parade. Over 50 members were in attendance and ours was the largest contingent in line and drew the most applause. After Passing in Review, the Company was dismissed and again Captain DeStefano provided the refreshments at his suite.

The Captain is to be congratulated on this fine trip which was so highly successful. SGT Denly is to be commended for the fine arrangements. And finally each and every member should be commended for their conduct and attention to duty.

26th (YANKEE) INFANTRY DIVISION ARTILLERY
A REPORT

Memorandum to: Captain Ralph J. DeStefano
From: COL I. Jerome O'Connor, P.C., Aide-de-Camp of the Governor and Designated Representative of the A&HAC
Subject: Annual Redleg Ball
Saturday, 27 January 1968

At your direction I attended the Annual Redleg Ball of the 26th (Yankee) Infantry Division Artillery in the Armory of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts above Faneuil Hall.

There was a reception for the head table guests in the Captain's quarters at 7 o'clock and dinner was served shortly after 8 o'clock. Colonel William T. Burgoyne presided at the affair.

As a representative of the Governor I was the first to be presented by Colonel Burgoyne. I brought the personal and official greetings of the Governor to all those present and complimented them for the services they were performing for the people of the Commonwealth. I explained that the Governor was absent from the Commonwealth, being in Israel with a group of other Governors by arrangement with the United States Department of State as guests of Israel.

Head table guests who addressed the assembly included Major General Joseph M. Ambrose, Major General Raymond A. Wilkinson, Major General Roger W. Eckfeldt, Brigadier General William R. Porter and Brigadier General Edward F. Logan.

As the representative of the A&HAC I was introduced for the second time and then welcomed the officers and members of the Artillery and their ladies to our Armory. I noted a few interesting facts about the Company's use of this particular room as its Armory continuously for more than two centuries. I expressed your regrets in not being able to be present because you were participating with the members of the A&HAC on the occasion of the Old Guard Ball at the Commodore Hotel in New York City. It surprised many of those present that the party which you were leading to New York consisted of more than 175 persons.

Major General Reginald A. Maurer, former Division Commander and Past Commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts presented the A&HAC Sabre to LT Samuel D. Perry, HQ Btry 1st Bn 101st Artillery, the 1967 Honor Cadet of the Massachusetts Military Academy. In behalf of the A&HAC I also presented a Sabre to LT Robert P. Duff, B Btry 1st Bn 102nd Artillery, the 1966 Honor Cadet of the MMA.

The speaking program concluded shortly before 11 o'clock and then there was dancing.

ADJUTANTS GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

ANNUAL MEETING

Tuesday, 30 April 1968

On the occasion of the 1968 Annual Meeting of the Adjutants General Association of the United States, which meeting was held in Boston, Massachusetts, starting on Tuesday, 30 April, and concluding on Thursday, 2 May 1968, the Governor hosted an invitational luncheon at the A&HAC Armory in Faneuil Hall to the Adjutants General and their wives. There was a reception starting at 12 noon and the luncheon started at 1 o'clock.

The Adjutant General, Major General Joseph M. Ambrose, introduced the Governor who presided from that time on including the saying of grace. The Governor was very generous to the A&HAC in his remarks and thanked the Company for granting the use of its Armory for this occasion. The Captain Commanding was a head table guest.

At 6 o'clock in the evening the A&HAC hosted a reception and cocktail party in the foyer of the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel for the Adjutants General, their wives and guests. There were hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and an open bar until closing at 7 o'clock.

The Adjutant General and the officers and members of the Adjutants General Association were profuse in their praise of the A&HAC for being such a gracious host and gave the Company credit for both the noonday luncheon and the evening reception.

The number at the reception greatly exceeded expectations and as a matter of fact a head count of those leaving after the festivities were closed at 7 o'clock produced the surprising total of 237. The Captain and his officers received the guests as they entered the foyer and again bid them adieu as they left.

IN MEMORIAM

COLONEL HAROLD P. MACLEOD

Enrolled 9 September 1946

Captain Commanding 1955-1956

Died 28 February 1968

Served 22 years

Colonel Harold P. MacLeod, born 2 December 1900 in Roxbury, Massachusetts, was the 246th Captain Commanding of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts. In later years he made his home in Westwood, Massachusetts where he resided on the occasion of his passing

From the day of his enrollment his interest in the activities of the Company was always in evidence, he was indeed a dedicated member. He was elected First Sergeant of Infantry in 1948 and served as Infantry Wing Adjutant in 1949 and in 1950. He was elected Second Lieutenant in 1951. In 1952, he served as Vice Chairman on the important Membership Committee. In 1953 he was elected First Lieutenant. The Company, recognizing the outstanding devotion to duty and the leadership ability of Colonel MacLeod, honored him in 1955 by electing him Captain Commanding. His term of office was outstanding. The Fall Field Day Tour of Duty was a most enjoyable visit to Miami, Florida and was highlighted by the fine cooperation of the Armed Forces of the United States who recognized the military background of Colonel MacLeod and were anxious to make the tour of duty a pleasant one for every member. Past Commander MacLeod continued his service to the Company by serving as Adjutant in 1959.

Colonel MacLeod had a distinguished record in the Armed Forces of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and in World War II as a member of the active forces of the United States. He began his military activities in 1919 as a member of the state military forces. In 1920 he enlisted in the 101st Field Artillery Massachusetts National Guard as a private and continued his military activities in the service branch until he was ordered into active Federal service in January 1941 with the rank of Captain. After the Pearl Harbor attack he volunteered for an assignment which developed to be service in the Pacific theatre. He served with distinction as a member of the famed Americal Division. He returned to civilian life in February 1946 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He continued his military service as a member of the staff of the Commander in Chief and served as Aide de Camp to the Governor of the Commonwealth and was appointed Colonel in 1953. After forty-two years, Colonel MacLeod terminated his service with the military in 1961.

One of the outstanding contributions which Colonel MacLeod made to the Commonwealth was the active part which he took in Civil Defense. He devoted a great deal of time and effort in organizing this important part of our community. He was particularly qualified because of his military background and was active in this work on the occasion of his passing.

In addition to his many interests, Colonel MacLeod was active in Fraternal organizations and was a member of those of the highest order in Masonry. Colonel Harold P. MacLeod, known to many as "Hap", truly had no enemies. His genial personality, his thoughtfulness of others, his devotion to duty and his military leadership, will long be remembered by members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company. He was indeed a great Captain Commanding who now joins those of the past. We are grateful that the fine traditions of this company continue to be maintained.

Respectfully Submitted,

Major General Reginald A. Maurer, P.C.

"THE DIFFERENCE"

Long before I ever saw a New England stone wall — while still in high school in New York City — Robert Frost's poem became a great favorite of mine, the one that begins, "Something there is that doesn't love a wall. That sends the frozen ground-swell under it, and spills the upper boulders in the sun; And makes gaps even two can pass abreast." There's some quaint Yankee philosophy in that poem, for, if you remember, when the author suggests to his neighbor that this annual, co-operative, back-breaking, finger-wearing task of mending the wall every springtime by putting the stones back in place be abandoned, "He only says, 'Good fences make good neighbours' . . . He will not go beyond his father's saying, And he likes having thought of it so well He says again, 'Good fences make good neighbours.'"

But it is another poem of Robert Frost that comes to my mind today, the one entitled "The Road Not Taken." We are, on this first Monday in June, observing the oldest anniversary in the Western Hemisphere, save only those of Harvard College, Boston Latin School, and the Christian Church, the 330th of the founding of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts. So this is a day we look back, not only upon the year just past noting the excellence and the high distinction that marked the term of Captain-Commanding Ralph J. DeStefano, who somehow managed two tours out of the country, but also upon all the years of our history to be fired anew with the resolve to continue to perpetuate in our day this ancient and illustrious record. Anniversaries are times for serious and sober reflection, and, as an older New England poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, wrote, "The holiest of all holidays are those Kept by ourselves in silence and apart; The secret anniversaries of the heart." I make bold today—and I trust I am not transgressing the borders of propriety nor straining the bonds of friendship—to share with you a "secret anniversary" of my heart. For on this very day, June 3rd, twenty-five years ago, I was graduated from the Seminary and was shortly thereafter ordained into the holy ministry and joined in holy wedlock to a pretty, brown-eyed lass from the Buckeye State. And that's why Frost's poem, "The Road Not Taken," is on my mind right now. In it a traveller tells how he came to a fork in the road, and, gazing ahead as far as he could see, he made a decision as to which one he would take. Looking back, he realized how that decision affected all his life after that, and so he wrote, "I shall be telling this with a sigh. Somewhere ages and ages hence: Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by, And that made all the difference."

When this realization comes to some, that they have committed themselves to one certain and seemingly unalterable course in life, they rebel and say, "How foolish I was to choose as I did. How much happier I should be had I followed the road not taken!" And some actually try to go back to the fork and start again. Witness the marriages of twenty-five years and more that are bitterly regretted, or dissolved. So many middle-age ministers have left their congregations for other work that an estimated 70,000 churches in America are without the services of a full-time pastor. A book entitled "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church" is on the best-seller list, and the author no longer wears the collar and has married. One of the nation's best-known bishops is accused of heresy, and a Professor of theology calls himself a "Christian atheist" and tells the world that "God is dead." To be really "with it" and to belong to the "in crowd" in ecclesiastical circles today, it surely seems, you must dissent, stand for change, and shout, "Revolution!"

Well, looking back upon twenty-five years of marriage and of the ministry and looking ahead to whatever more years God in His mercy will grant, I'll go along with the need for change and revolution all right, but not, however, with the kind that destroys sacred unions and renounces solemn commitments and undermines the truths of historic Christianity and the fundamental principles of American democracy. Sure our society is sick, but its problems are only an extension of our own individual problems. The world with all its fear and hate and selfishness, with all its greed and grief and lust for power, with all its intolerance, bigotry, and violence, that world will never change as long as people, as long as you and I, remain the same as we have been. General Douglas MacArthur once said, "The world problem is basically a theological one . . . and involves an improvement in human character." Recently Billy Graham put it a little more dramatically when he declared, "We need revolution," the kind of revolution, he explained, that does violence to nothing but the evil, and the hypocrisy, and the lovelessness, and the indifference in our own hearts.

I'm not satisfied by a long shot when I look back upon the last quarter-century of my life, and, I'm sure, in retrospect upon your lives, you all feel the same. We've missed too many opportunities to do some really great and some really good things. Too often we've wilfully chosen the easier wrong in preference to the harder right, so that on the scale of true worthiness we're far from the top and close to the bottom. And, as in his play, "Julius Caesar," Shakespeare has Cassius say to his fellow-conspirator, "The fault dear Brutus, is not in our stars But in ourselves, that we are underlings." From this line Sir James M. Barrie took the title of his play, "Dear Brutus." Act One of the play introduces us to a group of people at a house party. All are ineffectual, dissatisfied, feel they have "taken the wrong turning," and are victims of an unjust fate; they want a chance to begin again. In Act Two their host takes them into a magic forest where each gets the second chance he has been longing for, only to find that, though their outward circumstances alter and their dreams come true, they themselves are the same people as before. In the last act they return to the house, disenchanted, and are forced to face the bitter truth that the fault was not in their stars but in themselves. Said an old-time humorist who called himself Josh Billings, "In the game of life as in a game of cards, we have to play the hand dealt us. The good player is not the one who always wins, but the one who plays a poor hand well." We cannot retrace our steps and take the other road, and we do not have to choose to overthrow the institutions and the establishments we have and to renounce the pledges and the promises we have made. But we can, if we will, and we must, if we are truly followers of JESUS Christ, of Him who came into this world not only to save our souls for heaven but also to make us new and different and better creatures here on earth—we must change ourselves and have a revolution in our hearts. And to such a change and to such a revolution, on this anniversary day, I commit myself, and I place the challenge of a like commitment before each and every one of you.

The Reverend Doctor John Alexander Mackay, one of the pioneers of the ecumenical movement, for many years the President of Princeton Theological Seminary and member of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches, he once said, "Human history is not a flower garden but a battleground, on which a titanic struggle is taking place between God and the forces of evil." The Apostle Saint Paul, at his life's end, said, "I have fought a good fight" (II St. Timothy 4:7). No other soldier of JESUS Christ has ever been able, exactly, to match that. But today, looking back upon twenty-five years and looking ahead to my life's end, I ask for nothing more than for the grace to be able to repeat these words in the haunting way J. B. Phillips translates them in his modern version of the New Testament: "I have had a part in the great contest." To have had a part, even the smallest part, in the great contest between good and evil, that, in conclusion, I submit, and not the road taken, nor yet the road not taken, that makes all the difference in our lives.

Proud is the man, who an Ancient be,
He stands erect with his head held high
For his heritage is second to none.
He is the man of destiny.

Comrades all.

Ready to be taught the rules.
His lessons are long and some are hard
And many of them without thanks.

Comrades all.

Never to retreat, always to win,
His heart is forever growing
For the Comrade next to him.
It's something like being next of kin.

Comrades all.

The man in stature grows.
His reward is great because it's earned
For no one fades with a sigh.

And brings out the man of men
Who does not hide behind a veil.

Comrades all.

The never equalled Constitution.

Before I introduce our next head table guest, I take this opportunity to thank the Centennial Legion who participated in our parade and activities today. They added much to the color and pageantry of our parade.

The 2nd Vice Commander of the Centennial Legion of Historic Military Commands, which he is representing here tonight. He is also the Commander of the Kentish Guards, Colonel James W. Tingley, Jr.

The Division Chaplain, 26th Yankee Division, Chaplain Massachusetts Military Academy, Chaplain Jamaica Plain Veterans Hospital, Chaplain who gave the sermon today, Chaplain of our Company, Lieutenant Colonel Frank J. Bauer.

Commander of all non-divisional troops in Massachusetts, Major General Edward F. Logan.

The Commandant of the Massachusetts Military Academy, Treasurer of the National Guard Association and a former Adjutant of this Company, Major General Vincent P. Coyne.

A graduate of the Massachusetts Military Academy, graduate of the Artillery School, Fort Sill, a graduate of the Command and Staff College, and now Commanding General of the 26th Yankee Division, Massachusetts National Guard, Major General Raymond A. Wilkinson.

Representing the Commanding General of the Electronic Systems Division, Major General John J. Bestic, United States Air Force, who couldn't be here as he is on temporary duty elsewhere, the Chief of the Tactical Systems Engineering, Colonel Franklin J. Hickman.

The Captain under whom I had the privilege of serving as Second Lieutenant, a Military Aide under Former Governor Endicott Peabody, a Past Commander and our new Chief of Staff, Colonel Frederick A. York, Jr.

Our new Second Lieutenant who served as Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon under several captains, Commander James A. Lamphier.

A graduate of Harvard and Harvard Law School, served as a Battery Commander in the Pacific, a former Commander of the First Battalion, 102nd Field Artillery, a graduate of the Command and Staff College, appointed Adjutant General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 1964, Major General Joseph M. Ambrose.

Our newly-elected First Lieutenant, James E. Clair.

The representative of Lebanon, Consul Paul K. Handy.

Gentlemen, at this time, I would like to introduce distinguished guests not seated at the head table.

The Base Attachment Commander, 102nd Fighter Wing, Brigadier General John J. Stephanic, seated at table 19.

Corporation Counsel, City of Boston, the Honorable Herbert P. Gleason, seated at table 1.

Gentlemen, please give your attention to the Adjutant, who will now give the Second Regular Toast.

Adjutant Pereira then proposed:

The Second Regular Toast

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

THE ADJUTANT: For her defense our Company was chartered; with her progress and prosperity our members are identified. While in the preservation of her name and fame we renew our pledges of loyalty.

Gentlemen, I give you the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: And to respond to that toast, I call upon a gentleman who served as a Captain with the 10th Mountain Division, European Theatre of Operations in World War II, awarded the Bronze Star and Purple Heart with cluster, has served the Commonwealth as Commissioner of Natural Resources, Commissioner of Fish and Game, Commissioner of Division of Marine Fisheries and as Director of the Department of Public Works, has served the Federal Government as the United States Commissioner for Northwest Atlantic Fisheries and as Executive Director for the Outdoor Recreation Review Commission, the Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, also a gentleman whom I had the honor of enrolling in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company during my administration, Honorable Francis W. Sargent.

HONORABLE FRANCIS W. SARGENT: Thank you very much. Captain Ralph DeStefano, and our new Captain Commanding, Captain Nicholas T. Elias, I am very pleased and I am very honored to be here with you tonight on this 330th Anniversary of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts. And may I say this right now, that this gentleman is pretty embarrassed to be out of uniform with so much brass around tonight. I suppose when an infantryman joins an Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, that is what it to be expected. And I suppose, also, that I will be doing KP in the morning. I look forward to doing it and I suppose, also, that if you are number two you'd better learn to be in uniform or you will always be number two.

Very seriously, may I say this to you: Today, you and I heard a very fine sermon from Lieutenant Colonel Bauer, your Chaplain; and the point he made we must never forget. Essentially, it was this: That in this Nation we fought for the right to dissent, we fought for the right to disagree, and we fought for many things; but traditions are important in this Country, respect is important in this Country, and law and order is important in this Country. And I think that is what the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts is really all about. Respect, law and order and tradition, these things are important in America.

I am very delighted to be with you, and I am going to ask you to join with me in a toast that all of Massachusetts brings to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, and I am doing this for one very specific reason: — I just want you all to know that I didn't run on the prohibition ticket.

Join me please. Best wishes to everyone in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Gentlemen, give your attention to the Adjutant, who will propose the Third Regular Toast.

Adjutant Pereira then proposed:

The Third Regular Toast

THE CITY OF BOSTON

THE ADJUTANT: The home of great causes and the birthplace of men who have been foremost in the affairs of the Nation. Resplendent with deeds of patriotism. Its future looks toward those ideals that make for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. I give you, gentlemen, the City of Boston.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Be seated. To respond to the Third Regular Toast, we have a gentleman here who in World War II served as a Captain and Security Officer in the Pacific Theatre and was personal bodyguard to General McArthur. He was Assistant Attorney General from 1953 to 1956. He comes to us tonight representing His Honor, Mayor Kevin White, in the position in which he now serves as Director of the Office for Public Service for the City of Boston, Honorable Daniel J. Finn.

HONORABLE DANIEL J. FINN: Captain DeStefano, Captain-Elect Elias, Distinguished Consul General and my Distinguished Fellow Citizens of Boston, Massachusetts and the United States.

There is no man who sits in this room who from time to time has not suffered from pressure of public duty. And the extreme pressures which are demanded of the office of the Mayor in both time and energy and in presence has forced the commitment of a schedule this year, and this year particularly, to a series of local neighborhood meetings, which places me in the situation of representing Mayor Kevin White and my 600,000 fellow citizens of this City.

And to that toast I respond on their part with a deep sense of appreciation for the presence that this Company has had in this historic city for over three-and-a-third centuries.

I would submit to you that this Company is like and can be likened to a light beam in the history of this Nation, that you are here tonight assembled like a way station in the history of that light beam. For the human thread of leadership and membership which it has provided in the past illuminates the history of our Continent and our Country, the great contemporary force that you are within the Nation that is the present custodian of the great traditions of Americana. And what you auger for the future as you continue to be that representative is one that should be and will be and I submit to you is honored by every citizen not only of this City but the millions of people who come from around this world and who understand the great contribution you have made to our society. It is, I think, reassuring that this Company has endured long before and it will endure long after our lives.

And the last capsule thought that I think I would like to leave with you is this: That there is no end to the number of people in this world who ask why does the Nation endure. It is I suppose, after all the frivolity, after all the laughter, after all the color and pageantry, settled in that small scintilla of thought which is present in each one of you which says that I am in part custodian of tradition, I am in part custodian of patriotism, I am in part custodian of the Nation. I would submit to you the thought if there is magic, and I submit that there is, that magic is in the room. There are millions who have thought and lived the way you do and will in the future; and to have been a part of that magic for only a moment is something which brings me honor, the City honor. And to you I offer the heart of Kevin White, and to you, fellow citizens, a bright future. Thank you.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Gentlemen, will you now give your attention to the Adjutant, who will propose the Fourth Regular Toast.

Adjutant Pereira then proposed:

The Fourth Regular Toast

THE ARMED FORCES

ADJUTANT PEREIRA: Please rise, gentlemen. The Fourth Regular Toast, to the Armed Forces.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Be seated, gentlemen. To introduce our next speaker properly would take an hour, so I will just list his decorations.

He was awarded the Navy Cross with star, the Silver Cross with star, the Legion of Merit, Commendation Ribbon and the Presidential Unit Citation Ribbon with two stars.

I present to you Rear Admiral Roy Stanley Benson, Commandant, First Naval District.

ADMIRAL BENSON: Thank you very much, gentlemen. This is a bad day for me today. I was down at Brown University today for the commencement and for the commissioning of the new officers of the Armed Forces — that is, those who had been in the Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force ROTC. I had the pleasure of swearing in these gentlemen to the Armed Forces of the United States.

I followed a man on the program who was hard to follow: a person who had previously that day at Brown University received a doctorate — none other than Doctor Bob Hope, a tough guy to follow. Naturally, he stole all of my jokes and so I could tell no jokes. As a matter of fact, after a couple of jokes, he became very solemn, very serious; he talked about patriotism. His address was magnificent. There was hardly anything for me to say, but I said it anyhow, and, I am sure, added very little to the proceedings.

Tonight, also, I have some hard people to follow, because the speakers before me have indeed been magnificent. They have not stolen any of my jokes, however.

Last Washington's Birthday at Fanueil Hall, I made some remarks, and some of those remarks bear repeating tonight. Mrs. Benson and I have been in Boston just a little bit over a year. One of the many things we have noted around Boston and have particularly liked and admired has been the patriotism we note around this area. Perhaps it is only the outward manifestations, but it appears that you have more of that old-fashioned patriotism than many other parts of the world. We admire this; we think this is perfectly grand. We congratulate you and thank you.

However, my job here is to respond to the Toast which was so graciously made to the Armed Forces. My inclination is simply to thank you on behalf of the Armed Forces of the United States; but the Armed Forces belong to all Americans. They are not my Armed Forces, nor General Lemmon's, nor General Bestick's, or Admiral Childress of the Coast Guard's, Armed Forces. The Coast Guard is not really a part of the Armed Forces, but anytime the Armed Forces is going to be blamed for anything, we include them. I am sorry Admiral Childress is going to retire. We will miss him as a target and also as a real good friend.

However, I would like to say thank you ever so much for your tremendous support to our Armed Forces. Thank you ever so much.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Gentlemen, give your attention to the Adjutant, who will give the Fifth Regular Toast.

ADJUTANT PEREIRA: Don't rise, gentlemen. Before I give the Fifth Regular Toast, I would like to read a telegram. It is addressed to Captain Ralph J. DeStefano, Commander, Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

"Best wishes to the Company and to all my old friends. Signed, Major John Hill, Honourable Artillery Company of London."

At this time, I would like to call on the Senior Past Commander, Frank G. Volpe, to approach the rostrum.

CAPTAIN FRANK VOLPE: Commander, this is an unusual procedure. It is my honor and privilege to present to our outgoing Commander this beautiful medal. I should explain this unusual change here tonight. We usually wait until September when the Past Commanders have their Annual Meeting and the new Past Commander is presented with this beautiful medal. You probably know there are 16 Past Commanders; there are 13 here tonight. All these men have served a good many years. So, tonight, it is my privilege to present to this outgoing Commander — I'm so glad you are paying attention — it is the last episode I think in his life as Commander. I should have said he's been here at least 15 years. It takes a long time as a member of the organization to reach this point. He was Sergeant for two or three years. You probably know a person who becomes a Second Lieutenant cannot become First Lieutenant until two years, then from First Lieutenant another two years before he can become Commander, if there is no opposition. So, it takes a person at least 10 or 12 years to accomplish the position of being Commander. And instead of waiting until September to present this to our new Past Commander, it is my privilege and honor now to present this. You know his record for the 10 years. He has done wonderful service for the Company. I'm so glad you are paying attention. It is now my honor and privilege to present this to the Commander.

ADJUTANT PEREIRA: At this time, I would like to call on Lieutenant Hinton to make a presentation to Captain DeStefano.

LIEUTENANT HINTON: The Massachusetts Military Academy Alumni Association welcomes Captain Ralph J. DeStefano to Honorary Membership of the Alumni Association. At our official meeting, you were elected an Honorary Member because of the contributions of you and your Company to the ideals and welfare of the Massachusetts Military Academy.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: Please remain standing, gentlemen. The Fifth Regular Toast.

Adjutant Pereira then proposed:

The Fifth Regular Toast

THE ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY

ADJUTANT PEREIRA: This Company still keeps alive the old traditions, steadfast and loyal to its trust. Gentlemen, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

CAPTAIN DEStEFANO: I want to thank our Senior Past Commander, Frank Volpe, and the Society of Past Commanders for bestowing this honor upon me. Believe me, gentlemen, there are very few men who are so honored; and I am so honored. Thank you very, very much for the award you have bestowed upon me.

Reverend Clergy, Distinguished Guests at the Head Table, my Comrades and Friends:

Just one year ago tonight I stood here as your newly elected Captain for what still remains one of my proudest moments. My year as Captain Commanding has now passed and I can say that never even for one moment was I disappointed in the fine men I had the honor to represent and serve with. Gentlemen, it has been a truly wonderful year, one that I will long cherish and remember.

I don't think I need mention how much I appreciated the enthusiasm shown me and the help given me by my staff and by the many dedicated officers and members. There are many new comrades present tonight who are attending their first June Day Banquet. To these new members I would like to say that it is through participation and comradeship similar to that which was given to me during the past year that the true spirit of our Ancient Company is maintained and nourished. This enthusiasm by every member is what will keep our Company the venerable and yet dynamic institution it has become over the past three hundred and thirty years.

Tonight is our three hundred and thirtieth anniversary. It is overwhelming to imagine that over three hundred years ago a similar group of men performed the same ceremony in the same manner we performed it today. It is even more awe-inspiring to imagine that three hundred years from today another similar group of men will perform that same ceremony again and in exactly the same manner. The records of our Company today will be read as history in the future just as our records of the past have become part of our national history.

I would like to ask that all of us pause for a moment tonight to think of the many dedicated and illustrious members who have come before us who by their dedication have been greatly instrumental in making our great Company what it is today. Today, on Boston Common, you have elected the Captain of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts for the ensuing year. I know you will give him the same tremendous support I was very proud to have received from all my comrades. I stand ready to assist him at any time, if called upon to do so. My heartiest congratulations on his election, and I wish him the best for a most happy and successful year. Thank you. (Applause)

Before I proceed any further, I want to thank my comrades for the last time as their Captain Commanding. I still am until Nicholas takes over the gavel. But I do appreciate the tremendous parade we had today, a very, very successful and memorable day. I appreciate it very much.

I now call upon your newly-elected Captain, Nicholas T. Elias, to respond to the Toast to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

CAPTAIN ELIAS: Reverend Clergy, Captain DeStefano, Distinguished Head Table Guests, my Comrades and Friends all:

Admiral Benson, I know how you felt this afternoon now that Captain DeStefano preceded me. We have seated in this hall judges, lawyers, doctors, civic, government, industrial leaders and people from all walks of life. I am privileged, indeed, to be talking to you as Captain Commanding of this great and illustrious Company. This is most certainly one of the greatest honors in my life. Gentlemen, this is a Company of world renown, of great tradition and volumes of recorded history. I hasten to assure you, each and every one, that during my administration I will strive to maintain the same dignity and tradition befitting this Company.

May I, with your permission, express my congratulations to the prior administration, and most particularly to Captain Ralph DeStefano.

Ralph, I am delighted to receive the turn-over of command from your capable hands. Your administration has been one of the very best and most successful in the records of our Company. On this, the termination of your office, as Captain Commanding, you are now graduating into the illustrious Society of Past Commanders, wherein you will be an exceptionally fine asset.

You and your entire staff, elected and appointed, have rounded out a year, a year that will long be remembered, praised and approved in the records of our Company. These accomplishments could not have been were it not for your graciousness and competent personal leadership. I only hope, hope with great sincerity, that I and my staff can follow in your footsteps and give our Company as successful an administration as yours.

I recommend at this time we stand and give Captain DeStefano and the outgoing administration a standing vote of appreciation. (Applause)

Gentlemen, the hour grows late, but may I with your indulgence introduce my key officers to you.

The first man I have had the pleasure of working with for many years, and no matter what he is called upon to do, he has done the job well. I like to think of him as the Incomparable Lieutenant. My and your First Lieutenant, Lieutenant Ernie Clair. (Applause)

The next Comrade, our newly-elected Second Lieutenant, shows great promise and may well some day be in this same spot as I am now. Lieutenant James A. Lamphier. (Applause)

There are a few principal members of my staff I would like you to meet: First is a gentleman who is my right arm, always working very close with me these last arduous six months. Every request or job, no matter how big, or small, was never beyond his expert capability to accomplish, he is always at my beck and call, a man of great sincerity, and you all know him so very well, my Chief of Staff, Colonel Frederick A. York, Jr.

The next, a person who possesses an illustrious life of military background and experience, you all know him to be very able and capable. I was indeed privileged, privileged beyond all measure, when he accepted my request to become my Adjutant — Gentlemen, I present Brigadier General Lawrence F. Carew. (Applause)

Now, if the rest of my appointed staff will stand and be recognized. (Applause)

I will now call on Chaplain Bauer for the benediction. (Benediction given.)

CAPTAIN ELIAS: This now ends the 330th Anniversary Banquet.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

By His Excellency

JOHN A. VOLPE

Governor

A PROCLAMATION

1968

To the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts belongs the honor of being the first military company chartered in the Western Hemisphere. Founded in 1637 and chartered on March 13, 1638, its members have proudly participated in every American conflict since the Pilgrims fought the Indians.

The history of the Company is closely associated with that of the Bay State, and it vividly reflects America's development through the years, from Indian encounters, the Boston Tea Party, Lexington and Concord, Shay's Rebellion, the Civil War, the World Wars, Korea and Vietnam.

Since 1746, the Company Armory has been in Boston's Faneuil Hall, an historic citadel known to all Americans, and the Governor of Massachusetts is Commander-in-Chief of the Company. Four of its members have received our country's highest military decoration, the Medal of Honor. Four Presidents of the United States have been members of the Company: James Monroe, Chester Alan Arthur, Calvin Coolidge and John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

Today, the men of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts have the important role of patriotic citizenship for Massachusetts and the Nation. Long may they remain active and keep our illustrious heritage alive.

NOW, therefore, I, JOHN A. VOLPE, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim Monday, June 3, 1968 as and urge all citizens of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to take cognizance of this observance in tribute to the long and glorious history of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts and its continuing patriotic endeavors.

GIVEN at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this fourteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and ninety-second.

SEAL

John A. Volpe
